

General Terms of Service for Advertisers (and Agencies representing Advertisers)

Valid for all Agreements having Contract Start Date on or after August 1, 2026

1. Background

1. Webgains has developed an online software platform (retrievable under www.webgains.com) functioning as a marketing network whereby advertisers (directly or represented by their agencies) ("Advertiser(s)"), can advertise for their marketing campaigns (Affiliate Programs) to be implemented on the websites or advertising spaces of other online publishers ("Publishers"), through a series of online tools contained in the Webgains online platform and through the activity of Webgains' staff (collectively the "Services", as better specified in the definitions list) who, according to the various Service Level Agreements, strive to enhance the results of the Affiliate Program (e.g. by setting up the Affiliate Program in the platform, providing tracking codes, selecting affiliate publishers, checking performance, etc.).
2. You ("You") are joining this marketing network by signing the Commission Schedule as Advertiser (or as Agency acting on behalf of an Advertiser, as the case may be).
3. For receiving the Services, You shall pay to Webgains the Publisher Commission and the Webgains' Fees specified in the Commission Schedule, partly through fixed fees or recurring fees (e.g. joining fee, minimum commission, etc.), partly based on Valid Transactions (as specified below and in the Commission Schedule)
4. Please make reference to the Definitions list on the last paragraph.
5. These General Terms of Service apply to all new programs having Contract Start Date as of August 1st, 2026 onwards and do not apply to extensions (for example, geographical extensions) of programs already existing before that date. This specified, replace and entirely supersede the general terms of service previously agreed between You and Webgains.

2. Advertiser's obligations

1. You agree to proactively cooperate with Webgains, to make sure the Affiliate Program goes live on Contract Start Date or within 4 weeks after such date latest. If You do not provide any cooperation and Launch is postponed due to your failure Webgains reserves the right either (i) to charge 100% of all fixed and monthly recurring or guaranteed fees, if any, from Contract Start Date, or (ii) failing a monthly recurring or guaranteed fees, Webgains reserves the right to charge £300/€300/$300 for each month of delay, until Launch. In this connection, You commit yourself to implement the Webgains Tracking Code, in all variations, on your Affiliate Program website and to keep it implemented for the entire duration of the Program.
2. Webgains is allowed to launch the Program before the Contract Start Date, provided all launch requirements have been met. Webgains reserves the right to amend, from time to time, the Tracking Code and/or the container tag containing the Tracking Code insofar such amendments are reasonably necessary for Webgains for (i) adapting to

- new technologies and/or legal requirements, (ii) improving performance or, (iii) developing the Webgains platform in the interest of the Advertiser (e.g. to implement new functionalities).
3. You are not allowed to reduce the minimum Publisher Commission rate as set in the Commission Schedule without Webgains' consent, which shall not be unreasonably denied. In any case, You may, from time to time., reduce the Publisher Commission Rate and the Cookie Period, (i) with a notice to Publishers via the Webgains platform of not less than 30 calendar days, and (ii) no more than 20% within a 30-day period.
 4. You accept that the Webgains Tracking Code is the only accepted technology to measure the Transactions regarding your Affiliate Program. No other technologies (e.g. but not limited to, Google analytics, Adobe, etc.) are accepted. However, you may cancel/adjust Transactions during the Validation Period according to the terms set below, and it is your onus to verify and Validate the Transactions during the Validation Period.
 5. You will notify Webgains at least 7 working days before making any changes on your website/mobile app that may affect the Tracking Code.
 6. Except as the above, you are not allowed to remove/alter the Tracking Code without Webgains' consent. You will indemnify Webgains for the damages incurred if the Webgains Tracking Code or the container tag containing the Tracking Code are removed or altered by You without Webgains' consent. Indemnification will be based on a like for like period on the Webgains' Fee and the Publisher Commission.
 7. At the Contract Start Date of an Affiliate Program, You shall chose an initial number of Publishers or Publisher types/groups to make Launch possible, or, failing that, provided by Webgains. You accept that Publishers will automatically be approved within 14 days of application to an Affiliate Program unless rejected by You. t is understood that You shall accept or refrain from rejecting Publisher types/groups which are permitted to promote You on other affiliate marketing networks, including in-house networks.
 8. You shall provide Webgains with the promotional tools and Materials that are reasonably required to run an Affiliate Program within 10 working days of signing the Commission Schedule. This should include at least banners, data feed, email templates and txt links.
 9. You shall transfer Sales Data to Webgains for invoicing purposes and to detect any misuse or fraud.
 10. You shall not make any changes which may indirectly reduce the Publisher Commission and/or Webgains' Fees (e.g. removing Publishers or Publisher types / groups from the Affiliate Program, reducing the Cookie Period for tracking Transactions, deduping, changing attribution methodology and keyword policy) after the Affiliate Program is live, without agreement with Webgains in writing 30 days before. In any case (i) the updated Publisher Commission may not be less than (x) the minimum amount set in the Commission Schedule and (y) the equivalent commission offered by You on other affiliate marketing networks, or in-house or personal affiliate marketing programs, (ii) massive Publisher dismissals or any actions having the effect to substantially putting on hold Your Affiliate Program(s), will make You liable to pay to Webgains an indemnity equal to six times the average monthly Webgains' fees of the previous 6 months, unless otherwise agreed. If the Affiliate Program started for less than six months, then the average shall be calculated only on the effective months of duration.

11. You agree to set a Validation Period (see definitions) visible to Publishers during which Transactions may be cancelled or adjusted by You. The maximum Validation period you can set is 50 days, unless otherwise agreed in the Commission Schedule. Failing any time set by You, the Validation Period is automatically 35 days from the date Transactions are tracked in the Webgains platform. Transactions are considered valid and thereby payable by You if validated by You or if not justifiably cancelled or adjusted by You within the Validation Period. After the Validation Period has expired without any action by You, Transactions are deemed as final and validated and cannot be cancelled/adjusted by You any longer (and consequently Webgains Fees and Publisher Commission shall be payable by You). For the avoidance of doubt, our Services are finalised subject to the Validation of the Transactions.
12. Publishers and/or Webgains may from time to time raise Transaction Enquiries in relation to "untracked Transactions" that have not been reported via the Webgains interface or cancelled/adjusted Transactions. You shall Validate or cancel/adjust such Transactions within 30 days of the enquiry being made (unless a longer term is agreed with Webgains); failing any action by You, the "Untracked Transactions" shall be deemed as definitely Validated and payable at the expiry of such term.
13. Webgains invested considerable efforts through the time to collect a vast number of Publishers on the Webgains platform ready to join the various Affiliate Programs. You agree that during this and 6 months after its termination:
 - a) You will not promote, enter or attempt to enter into any other agreement or arrangement of any services (directly or indirectly) with the Publishers delivering Your Affiliate Programme(s) other than through Webgains, or
 - b) You shall not transfer, attempt to transfer, recommend, Publishers from the Webgains network to other networks, including Your own in house solutions.If You breach the above provisions, You shall pay Webgains a penalty of the greater of (i) five times the Webgains Fees and Publisher Commissions You generated with those Publishers during the 6 months prior to Your breach or prior to termination, (ii) £10,000 for each Publisher for which You committed the breach, irrespective of any limitation of this Agreement. The latter amount shall be due immediately upon Webgains becoming aware of Your breach, pending further calculations under (i).
14. You agree to disclose Your de-duplication Policy before launching the Affiliate Program. If You want to modify the de-duplication Policy during the Agreement You need to give Webgains and Publishers 30 days' notice. Any de-duplication policy does not imply you are relieved from your onus to cancel/adjust Transactions under the Validation Period. Deduplication may not be implemented on the assumptions that the user also visited the Advertiser URL: (i) by typing the Advertiser URL into a web browser, or (ii) by following links appearing in organic search results, paid-for results of searches on the Advertiser's brand names, organic social media, price comparison websites, or (iii) as a result of internal email marketing or newsletters, or (iv) as a result of the retargeting to that Visitor by email, by telephone by interstitial or pop-up, or while at the Advertiser URL, as a result that Visitor's behaviour.
